Citizens Comments
Nieminen; Buckley; GVNA	Mr. Buckley and the Nieminen's were present to acknowledge and support the Griswold Regional Visiting Nurse Association. The GRVNA has requested an approximate 300% increase in funding from Voluntown for the 2008/2009 Fiscal Year. The BOS noted that they were in agreement with Mr. Buckley and the Nieminen's, and felt the GRVNA did an excellent job. Mr. Grimm stated that he would, however, not be doing his job if the BOS did not investigate alternate services with an increase of this magnitude. Ms. Larue and Mr. Reinholtz of the GRVNA noted that they make every effort to pursue grants and alternate billing (Insurance & Medicare). Ms. Barnes who does nursing for the GRVNA in Voluntown noted that the quality of care they provide is superior to others she is familiar with.
Old Business
Streetscape	Ms. Sullivan asked if the Streetscape Project would address the large depression at the corner of Lillibridge and Main Street. The BOS noted that it would be taken care of this spring when PDF Construction completes work on Phase I.
Beach Pond	The BOS reviewed a letter from the State outlining a drawdown schedule for Beach Pond. A copy of the letter is appended to these minutes.
